

MORE BONDS TO BE ISSUED

The Object of the Bond Issue is to Keep From Drawing Upon the Banks for Money.

Although the government has $119,000,000 deposited in the national banks where it draws no interest, yet it has decided to call for bids on $30,000,000 of 2 percent bonds. Bids may be made up to December 5.

These bonds are called Panama canal bonds. As a matter of fact, the money received from them will go into the treasury to be drawn upon for any government purpose whatever. The object of the bond issue is to keep from drawing upon the banks for money in this crop-moving season of the year.

BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT.

The Year 1909 Promises to be Record-breaking in Prosperity.

"Every branch of business has shown signs of improvement within the past two weeks," said L. N. Towns, of Kansas City. "I was in New York a few days ago and everybody I met talked buoyantly of business, and in the west conditions are exceptionally good."

"In some manufacturing sections the effect of the business improvement has not yet been felt in the pay rolls but early in the new year money will circulate more freely than it has done in 18 months past. The year 1909 promises to be record-breaking in prosperity."

Who Knows?

Charlotte Observer.

Mr. Bryan's written statement at San Antonio, Texas, Tuesday, in reply to the question, "Will you run for the presidency again if conditions arise to warrant it?" was anything else than a renunciation. It was in these words: "My friends do not require me to pre-empt the future and I shall not take the advice of my opponents on this subject." I shall continue to write and speak in defense of things which I believe to be good for the American people. I hope it may never become necessary to run for office again, but I will not attempt to decide that question until the time comes to act. I do not see any necessity to say more on the subject. This was neither an announcement of his candidacy nor an assurance to the Democratic party that he would take his seat from out of its heart and take his form off its door. His promise to "continue to write and speak in defense of things which," he believes "to be good for the American people" is a promise that he will keep himself well within their vision and his "opponents" might say is a guarantee that if he felt called upon to lead again in 1912 would not fail to respond to the summons. True, he hopes that "it may never become necessary to run for office again" but he expressed the same hope two years ago and it "became necessary." It may become necessary four years hence.

That Noble Band.

The ARGUS is in receipt of a copy of "That Noble Band of Odd Fellows," a very poetic song written by one of the inmates of the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home here, Master Arnold Dennis, Dennis and set to music by E. McIntosh Cullom. It is handsomely printed and has on its frontispiece a picture of the young author. It is for sale at 25 cents per copy, on application, and the ARGUS bespeaks for the deserving young author a liberal patronage of his song, as with the money thus obtained he hopes to pay his way through Trinity College, in the study of the ministry. His song is "worthy of itself and his ambition in life is the highest, and, orphaned as he is, it is up to you, readers of this notice, to 'cast your bread upon the waters,' being assured that the opportunity is ripe with promise, of a rich return 'after many days.'"

CUTHRELL-APPLEWHITE.

NEWS FROM WALTER.

Interesting News Items From that Prosperous Neighborhood

Walter, N. C., Nov. 25.

Prof. Edgar Thorne, of the faculty of Rosewood Academy, spent Saturday in Raleigh on business.

Miss Elizabeth Becton is visiting in Ayden, N. C., where she is the guest at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Tripp.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fussell and children, of your city, were visitors here Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. A. Cotton.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hood from the Falling Creek section, were visiting friends near Ebenezer Saturday and Sunday, where they once lived.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Woodward, of Whitaker, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Toby Howell, on their return home from the convention at Kinston.

Mr. Asa Bass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alpha Bass, is the champion 'possum hunter of this section, having caught eighteen in the past week. The woods seem to be full of them, and "possum and tater" is an every day pastime in this community. We heard of one bre'r possum last week who kept bre'r rabbit out of rabbit box, by getting in there first. Rabbits are plentiful also, and the boys who catch them and ready sale, especially to the freight crew.

John Williams, a colored farmer, living near the new bridge was tried before Mr. James Edwards last Wednesday and bound over to court, and committed to jail in default of bond. It seems that he was returning from Fremont the night before, and appropriated two sheets of cotton, belonging to a Mr. Crawford near Pleasant Grove church. Mr. Crawford tracked the wagon and horse and at the darkeys home found the horse still very wet from his trip, and with a track corresponding to the one he had followed from where the cotton disappeared. A search warrant also revealed his cotton sheets, which were secreted between the bed and mattress in the darkey's house, the sheets bearing Mr. Crawford's mark. Besides this, John seems to have been quite thirsty, as he had in his possession a two gallon jug of "corn liker," two pints and one half-pint, as a result of his trip to Fremont, with which to satisfy the cravings of his desire for John Barleycorn.

Early last Saturday morning, the Pine Forest Sunday School, and quite a number of the parents of the children, and friends, went to Cox's terry bridge on Neuse river on their annual outing. There were buggies, surreys, one and two horse wagon loads of happy hearted children and young people, and after reaching their destination, the hunters among the number, went in search of game for dinner. When they returned the pans were on the fire, the grease good and hot, and it would have sharpened any appetite to have witnessed the preparation and cooking of the 'possum, squirrel, rabbits, quail and fish, together with the chicken, pork, &c., carried with them, which completed the meats for dinner. Besides this there were cakes, pies, pickles, bread, &c., and when ready for the waiting crowd there was an abundance of the most palatable edibles, which the number present enjoyed to their fullest capacity. The hours were passed in the fullest enjoyment of the novel occasion. When the time arrived for their departure for home, each heart was filled with thoughts of a day most pleasantly spent. Quite a number of people from the Falling Creek section met the crowd at the bridge, and participated in the pleasures of the day, which added materially to their fund of enjoyment.

A bold and daring robbery occurred just this side of Ebenezer church last Saturday night, when Mr. Carl L. Swinson was held up in the road by three men, and robbed of one hundred and ninety dollars. Mr. Swinson was returning from Princeton and the first intimidation he had of trouble, a man grabbed his horse, and two others, threw a blanket over Mr. Swinson and held him fast, while they rifled his pockets. He had been in Princeton that day collecting for the machine company for which he is agent, and it is very evident that the perpetrators of the crime knew their man, and knew that he had money. Three men boarded the 10.30 train that night at the junction. An effort was made to have them apprehended, but to no avail. Mr. Swinson's empty purse, machine papers and some small change were found in the road Sunday morning at the scene of his exciting experience the night before. Had he been armed, he would not have been so entirely at their mercy. After getting his wallet they pulled the blanket from over him, struck the horse, and turned him loose. It was a daring, bold, disregard for the dignity of the law, and the safety of a human being. It is more audacious from the fact that it occurred within a hundred yards of Mr. Wm. Smith's, at an early hour in the night, and almost within the shadow of the church.

FALLING CREEK ITEMS.

Miss Hallie Hester was visiting Miss Fannie Blackman last Sunday.

Mrs. Lizzie Stevens was visiting at Mr. W. E. Blackman's last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Stevens were visiting Mrs. Julia Sherard last Sunday.

Mrs. Albert Hollowell and little daughter were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Murry Hollowell last week.

Mrs. E. A. Stevens and little son, Everitt Allen, of your city, were visiting in our community last week.

Mr. Henry Kennedy and Misses Etta Compton and Sarah Kennedy were visiting at Mr. G. P. Britt's last Sunday afternoon.

Rev. P. L. Greening filled his regular appointment at the M. E. church Sunday, and a large congregation was in attendance and enjoyed his able sermon.

We regret to learn of the death of "old uncle" Augustus Williams, which occurred at the home of his son last Friday afternoon. The funeral services were held at the M. E. church Saturday afternoon. The bereaved relatives have the deepest sympathy of our entire community.

WOODLAND CRUMBS.

Thanksgiving will be quietly observed in this section.

The County S. S. Convention, which is to be held next Saturday and Sunday at Woodland, will be well attended if the weather is good.

Our farmers are nearly through housing their crops, and while the crops are short, they are thankful for what they have, and hope for a larger yield next year.

We are glad to see improvements going on in your city. When the new union depot is ready for occupancy and in service, then business of all kinds will start up with new life. We don't claim to be a prophet nor the son of a prophet, but we believe it is only a question of time when the car line will be extended to the Myrtle Springs, and then the people of Goldsboro can get a full supply of this healthful water.
